Eight River Seniors Place In N.M.S.Q.T. Semi-Finals

This year's RRHS semifinalists in the N.M.S.Q.T. 1962-63 competition are Sally Eakin, Larry Gilbert, John Gosselink, Ron Hanson, Helen Hodgson, Wendy Marley, Dianne Peters, and Fred Schroeder.

They are among approximately 11,000 seniors throughout the country who attained semi-finalist status. The qualifying examination was given in more than 16,000 high schools last March.

The semi-finalists will take another test, the S. A. T., to

Ellen Stromberg Heads 1963 Riverlet

The RRHS yearbook, the Riverlet, will be sold for $3.75 this year. A total of 850 were sold last year.

The Riverlet selling campaign was last week, Oct. 1 through Oct. 6. The price was $1 with the remaining $2.75 to be paid later. If $1 was not paid at that time, the price of the Riverlet is $4.50.

Advisers to the Riverlet are Mrs. Nancy Chubb, Mr. Charles Shelton, and Mr. Quinton Morris. They chose the staff by interviewing the top ten per cent of the senior class for writers and editors. Chosen to head the staff this year is Ellen Stromberg. There is a girl and boy sports editor, club adviser, senior writers, business manager and faculty writer.

This year there will be more pictures and more pages. There are two new photographers. Any student may bring pictures of school activities to the Riverlet office for publibe given in testing centers throughout the country on Dec.

1, 1962. In past years, about

97 per cent of the semifinalists have survived this test to become finalists. As finalists, the students will be eligible for scholarship awards. These awards are four-year awards tailored to the student's need and may reach a maximum of $6,000

In the final phase of the competition, the high school grades, leadership qualities, extracurricular activities, and school citizenship will also be evaluated to determine the final winners in April.

for four years.

The Merit Program was established in 1955 with grants from the Ford Foundation and The Carnegie Corporation of New York. In April the Ford Foundation announced an additional grant to continue the program through 1970.

The program is also sponsored by various other business corporations and professional associations.

United Appeal Launches 62 Drive

Kathy Kleist and Shelly Van Winkle are members of the 1962 United Appeal Speakers Bureau. They were chosen to speak by Miss Dorothy Gray, who preceded Mr. Jack Cowden in the supervision of the campaign. Shelly will speak on "The Hannah Perkins Nursing Home" and Kathy will speak on "Cleveland Hearing and Speech Center" at the U. A. assembly, Oct. 11.

During the summer, both girls attended U. A. conferences where they received information about the purpose of the fund.

In preparation for her speech, Shelly visited the Red Cross, Rosemary Rehabilitation and Education Center, and the Hannah Perkins Nursing Home where she witnessed the work being done with the U. A. donations.

Kathy observed the work of the U. A. at the Red Cross and the Cleveland Hearing and Speech Center.

To qualify as speakers, the girls were required to send their written speeches to the U. A conference where they were revised and corrected. After presenting their speeches before the conference and being interviewed by the conference. Kathy and Shelly were accepted as U. A.

The girls will also present their speeches at the different Rocky River elementary schools.

High School PTA Opens House

Where is room 200? How much time between bells? Oh. no, that can't be the bell already! Ah ha, freshmen you say. No, it is the parents who will attend the annual PTAsponsored Open House at RRHS Tues., Oct. 16 at 7:30 p.m.

Parents will report to homeroom at 7:30 p.m. to receive schedule cards that will be filled out by the students. They will then proceed to the first period class indicated on the Periods will be ten minutes long and will enable parents to meet the teachers. Teachers will give a profile of the work outlined for the year.

Parents need not attend study hall and are urged to use this time to view such areas as the library or the band room. Refreshments will also be served in the cafeteria at this time.

The Open House is sponsored by the PTA so that parents will have the opportunity to see first hand the workings of the Rocky River High School's United Appeal drive will be opened at an assembly, Oct. 11. The assembly will feature speeches by Kathy Kleist and Shelly Van Winkle.

For the first time this year competition will be held between classes instead of homerooms. Oct. 15-19, donations will be accepted during homeroom and lunch periods. At lunch there will be a container for each class's donations.

"Last year Rocky River students donated over $12,000, or about $1 per person." stated Peg Kazarian, Student Council Service Chairman.

NSPA Judges Paper; Highest Rating Given

River's Hi-Tide has again received a first class rating from the National Scholastic Press Association. "A first class rating is comparable to 'excellent' and first class publications may be justly proud of their achievement," states Mr. Fred L. Kildow, director of the NSPA.

RRHS's newspaper is entirely planned, produced, and published by the journalism

Mr. Robert K. Payne, faculty adviser, commenting on the award said, "Much credit goes to the excellent leadership of Ron Hansen, editor-inchief, and Bobbie Gould, associate editor. With full student support the Hi-Tide can continue serving the school and community as an outstanding publication."

Drivers' Test Today?

The school would like to cooperate with pupils in helping them make arrangements for taking their drivers' tests.

Since road tests are given Tues. through Sat. from 8 to 4:30 p.m. and the written test from 8 to 4 o'clock at the Fairview testing center, there should be little reason to leave school. If an absence is necessary, the procedure outlined below must be followed.

- 1. See Miss McKee or Mr. Hooker to find how the schedule may be arranged in order to leave school without missing classes.
- 2. Make appointment for the time which has been arranged.
- 3. Bring a note from home to be excused from school on the day of the

Sick Seat-Saver Spurns Society

Lunch period is a time for relaxing, making new acquaintances, and telling your friends about the surprise quiz that they are going to have. It should be a time when everyone feels completely at ease with the others at his table.

Generally, students in the same grade sit together. This can be an opportunity to achieve a feeling of class unification.

However, there is one person who can ruin your lunch table. Known as the seat-saver, he walks into the cafeteria and immediately saves a group of chairs for his special group. The seat-saver is undesirable because he creates a feeling of unfriendliness wherever he goes.

The seat-saver is not only hurting the feelings of others, but he is passing up the opportunity to make new friends. Psychologists would describe this person as looking like any other student except that he can be recognized because he is either anti-social, shy, insecure, or a snob.

If all students who eat lunch in the cafeteria work together perhaps this creature, the seat-saver, can be extinguished from Rocky River High School.

Regulations Altered To Eliminate Confusion

This year boys' absence excuses for partial days, tardiness and passes to leave the building will be taken care of in the Student Council office from 8 o'clock until the end of homeroom. After homeroom ends they will be taken care of in the main office.

As in previous years excuses for multiples of full days absences will be taken to the homeroom teacher.

This new method is necessary because of the number of students involved. This change is to eliminate congestion of students in the main office.

Coming Colleges

Representatives from six different colleges will visit Rocky River High School between Oct. 9-23.

The colleges sending representatives are the following:

Pembroke College, Oct. 12; Knox College, Oct. 15; Clarkson Institute of Technology, Oct. 16; Vassar College, Oct. 19; University of Pittsburgh, Oct. 22; and Capital University, Oct. 23.

Anyone wishing an interview should see Mr. Herbert Agnor or Miss Frances McKee.

Next week, Oct. 15-19, River students again have the opportunity to be a part of Northern Ohio's United Appeal Drive.

This year's goal of $13, 120, 157 is to be distributed among 158 agencies. It may seem that your small contribution will do little in reaching this enormous goal. However, if you think that your gift can bring new hope and happiness to a person who, through no fault of his own, is in heed of help, you will realize how important it is.

The United Appeal is above all a person to person effort. And remember, "One gift works many wonders" - within the recipient and the giver.

Little Theater Welcomes Sue

By portraying Gloria in Lakewood Little Theater's "Auntie Mame," Sue Harris is adding another role to her already large acting repertoire.

The play began Sept. 26 and will run through Oct. 13. During this time Sue will be forced to keep an extremely busy schedule with all her school work and extracurricular activities.

This is nothing new for her, however, for she is a real veteran to theatrical life. "Even from the time I played the witchin 'Hansel and Gretel' at the age of nine, I have always aspired to be an actress," Sue commented.

Looking back upon some of her more recent roles, there was the portrayal of "Fifty" Ferris in last fall's Neophyte-Thespian play, "Mr. Barry's Etchings." She also worked at Huntington Playhouse this summer in "Emporer Jones." An interesting aspect of this last production was that Sue played, not one, but three parts that of an old native woman, a southern belle, and a crocodile. "It was really a job to make such drastic costume changes in such a short amount of time," she recalled. In addition, she is appearing as Miss Sheain this year's Neophyte-Thespian play,"What a Life!"

Sue pointed out that her present role in "Auntie Mame" is one of the high points of her acting career. She feels that she was fortunate to add Mr. Carl Mackey to the already impressive list of capable directors she has worked under.

World's Biggest Germ Depicts Daily Gym Activities, Exercises

by Keith Lerch

The gym teacher screams: Count off!

The pupils respond: 1-2-3-4-1-2-3-4-5.....

You knucklehead!

And so the gym year begins for us, the naturally un-co-ordinated. We're the minority that likes gym as much as the majority likes English!

Calisthenics! Eight-count leg lifts! commands the gym leader.

Leg lifts! the un-co-ordinated gripe. They're more like back-breakers!

Feel those muscles pull? asks the teacher

Yes - I CAN feel my muscles pull.....(big thrill!).....and twist..... and hurt!

Keep....those....legs....six....in-ches....off....the....floor.

Notice how the leader cleverly talks S-L-O-W-L-Y so as to prolong the agony? The un-co-ordinated notice.

Now we (We? Have you ever seen a teacher run?) We're going to run four miles (twenty-one thousand, one-hundred-and-twenty long, long feet.)

Remember! Don't wear yourselves out (HOW could we POSSIBLY wear ourselves out?) by running too fast. (now THAT'S a problem!)

Returning several hours late to the starting point, we are greeted withBATTLE BALL.

When I take off my glasses, the opponents blur into nothing. Not being able to see the opponent or his weapon (the ball) is a MARKED disadvantage in this game! With luck, few balls come near me, but I can hear the many near misses whiz by, and those direct hits!... oh well!

Rope climb! Chin ups! the teacher commands and demonstrates.

Unable to duplicate his feats, I ask myself; how can a forty year old teacher do these exercises when I can't. To me only one physical activity is fun and that is golf.

Get Going? and we are prodded along.

I wish President Kennedy liked chess or ping-pong or something anything except football and calisthenics. Does he realize what he has started? A veritable avalanche of physical fitness programs has invaded every high school and the national pastime of loafing is un-American.

Does Jack have to eat lunch minutes before gym? Does he go to his next test so pooped he can't think straight?

Some people say that exercise kills germs.....well, you're looking at the world's biggest germ - me!

Showers boys! Gym ends - at least for this day.

All kidding aside, gym's really okay. Physical fitness started during our youth will give us better health in our later years, and some of the gym is even fun, but when I'm twenty-one, believe me, I'm going to vote for a non-athletic president!

Leaders Mix Work, Fun; Potluck Follows Sales

Leave it to the girls! River can well be proud of its Girl Leaders. This social service group made up of outstanding girl students sparked the preschool football ticket sale.

River's well publicized prowess on the football gridiron has led to intense interest throughout the community.

The door to door campaign put on by the Leaders was well received. Their efforts plus the student sales have reached the impressive $2,000 figure.

Mr. Vincent Gandolfi feels that the girls have done an excellent job. The sale had to be conducted early this year because the opening football game was held only three days after school resumed. He expressed the feeling of the Athletic Department in saying "thank you girls."

Band Sees Mich. Show

Thirty-nine members of the RRHS marching band journeyed to the University of Michigan; Ann Arbor, to observe marching techniques of college bands and to watch the Army-University of Michigan football game.

The band left at 7:00 a.m. on Sat., Oct. 6, in a deluxe air-conditioned bus with card tables and radio. Reaching Ann Arbor about noon, they ate a picnic lunch and soon afterwards watched the Michigan Band during their last pregame rehearsal. Mr. Harlan Thomas, band director, is an alumnus of the University of Michigan.

At the vast Michigan stadium, the band met John Stavash, RRHS graduate of '62, and former first clarinet and band captain.

Returning home after the football game, the band ate dinner about 6:30 p.m. at a reserved dining room in a Howard Johnson's Restaurant, at Maumee, Ohio. Happily tired by the busy day, the band's bus reached Rocky River about midnight.

The RRHS Band will culminate the series of band concerts at Westgate by playing on Sat., Oct. 13. Among the selections are El Conquistador, The Penny-Whistle Song, The Theme from Mr. Lucky by Henry Mancini, Einzugs Marsch by Johann Straus, and other contemporary marches.

At this event, juniors will be welcomed into Leaders.

Besides the 70 members of Leaders, the potluck will be attended by the River and Fairview cheerleaders, and the club's adviser, Miss Christine

Following the potluck, the girls will attend the River vs. Fairview football game.

The Preliminary Scholastic Achievement Test will be given at RRHS on Sat., Oct. 20. This two-hour version of the regular Scholastic Achievement Testis designed primarily for juniors who are planning to attend college.

Both the P.S.A.T. and the S. A. T. are prepared by the College Entrance Examination Board. The P.S.A.T. is not compulsory, but is recommended because it gives an early evaluation of secondary scholastic aptitude.

Studies conducted in several hundred colleges have shown that verbal and mathematical abilities are essential for successful college work. The student taking this test is enabled to compare his scholastic ability in these two fields with the abilities of others in all parts of the United States and foreign countries.

The object of the P.S.A.T. is to ascertain the student's ability to reason with facts and to deal with given information.

An especially useful feature is that this test is similar to the S.A.T. required for entrance to many colleges.

Seniors seeking certain specific scholarship awards also should take the test. Scholarship sponsors frequently make use of P. S. A. T. scores in considering awards. The National Presbyterian College Scholarships, the Aid Association for Lutherans, and the National Honor Society Scholarships are among those requiring test scores of their applicants. Any seniors interested should contact Mr. Agnor or Miss Me-

A charge of $1.50 covers the cost of the test. The scores are returned to the school in December at which time they are made available to participating students and their counselors.

RRHS Bookstore Open; Offers 2500 Books

Rocky River High School's Paperback Book Store, located off the library and operated by Student Council, begins its second year of operation with almost 2500 exciting and informative paperbacks.

Among the new paperbacks "Nectar in the Sieve, are "Lord of the Flies," and "We Die Alone," which were the most popular books for adolescents last year according to The New York Time's Magazine.

"Nectar in the Sieve," by Kamala Markandaya, is the "story of a simple woman of India who never lost her faith in life or her love for her husband and children - despite her endless battle against relentless nature, changing times, and dire poverty. '

"Lord of the Flies," by William Golding, is an adventurous story and satire of how boys, trapped on an island, attempt to set up civilization as man did eons ago.

The book store is open every weekday during the library's regular hours, 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Jrs. Elect Officers

The election returns are now in. Rocky River High School's Junior Class has chosen its officers for the coming year.

Tom Allenis taking over the job of class president for the second time in a row. To help him guide the class throughout this year will be: Vince Gandolfi, vice-president; Marsha Jennings, secretary; and Pat Anderson, treasurer.

Pirates Defeat Westlake; Warriors Invade Friday

Having won its opening game against Brooklyn and having followed up with three more victories in succession over Oberlin, Medina, and Westlake, the River football team will meet Fairview here this Friday. that order.

The Pirates faced undefeated teams in each of their first five games. On the other hand, when Bay met River last Friday in a battle of undefeateds, it was the first time that a foe of the Rockets had a victory to its credit. However, the Pirates finish with three second-division teams, Fairview, Olmsted Falls, and North Olmsted, while Bay must play the stronger Oberlin, Medina, and Westlake squads.

The Pirate defense, stingiest in the conference in terms of points scored against, combined with the rain to limit Westlake's offensive machine, which had been averaging over 36 points a game, highest in the district, to one touchdown in the Sept. 28 meeting.

The Corsairs also topped the Demons by the same score, 14-6, last year en route to the conference championship. Tony Balsamo, Westlake halfback, scored in that game and came close this year but fumbled when he was hit hard on the River 1-yard line.

Pat Gillespie received Pres Star Honorable Mention for his fine quarterbacking in the Brooklyn and Medina games.

The Pirates are rated 26th higher than any other Southwestern Conference team, in the most recent Cleveland Press ratings of 113 area high school teams.

Thinclads Win First Meetings

The RRHS cross country squad opened its 1962 season by outdistancing West Tech 23-32 on the two mile West Tech course Tues., Sept. 25. Senior letterman Tom Kelley placed first in a field of 37 thin clads, 18 of whom were from River. His time for the course was 10:32. Tom George took second place with a time of 11:08. Lee Perry, Pat Winegard, and Marc Davis ranked fourth, seventh, and ninth respectively.

In their second meet with Berea on Fri., Sept. 28, the milers were defeated 25-32 in a field of 42 runners. Of the 17 River participants Tom Kelley placed first again with a time of 10:19 on the same West Tech course. This time approaches the course record of 10:00. Sophomore Marc Davis took 5th place with a time of 11:16. Lee Perry, Pat Winegard, and Keith Wilhelm finished off the top five River line-up with sixth, eighth, and twelfth place respectively.
